An Indochinese Box Turtle enjoys a soak at the Turtle Conservation Centre Vietnam

An Indochinese Box Turtle (Cuora galbinifrons) enjoys a soak in the stream enclosure as spring warms up at the Turtle Conservation Centre (TCC), Cuc Phuong National Park in Vietnam. The Asian Turtle Program (ATP) and the Turtle Conservation Centre (TCC) always need helps with support of the rescue and care of animals at the centre. Please visit www.asianturtleprogram.org for donations.
